GARDEN SPOTLIGHT

Botanical Name: Fothergilla x intermedia ‘Blue Shadow’
Common Name: fothergilla; witch alder
- Height: 4’-5’
- Spread: 4’-5’
- Flower: Fragrant, white blooms typically appear before leaves fully unfold
- Site: full sun to part shade
- Leaf: Ovate, powdery blue throughout the season turning yellow/orange/red in fall

Fothergilla is native to the eastern United States with great multi-season interest. It typically blooms April through May, beginning before the leaves fully emerge. The leaves that follow with this particular cultivar emerge green before turning to a powdery blue not typically seen in the garden. Perhaps the strongest attribute is its fall color, with shades ranging from yellow to red and everything in between and lasting for several weeks. Tolerant of many conditions from dry woodland to boggy conditions and full sun to shade, you’re sure to be able to find a place to add this to your garden.

GREENSBORO BEAUTIFUL COMMISSIONS

GARDEN PAINTINGS

As part of its 50th Anniversary Celebration, Greensboro Beautiful is collaborating with local artist William Mangum to commemorate this extraordinary milestone by commissioning four signature paintings — original artwork of the Tanger Family Bicentennial Garden, the Bog Garden at Benjamin Park, the Greensboro Arboretum, and Gateway Gardens.

Mangum will also produce 11” x 14” reproductions of each of the four signature paintings. Reproductions will be made available at Greensboro Beautiful’s events throughout 2018. The reproductions will be provided as a thank you for special donations made to Greensboro Beautiful, with 100% of the contribution going to benefit Greensboro’s gardens.

“The four prints will culminate to make a suite to celebrate the diversity of each garden and the rich history of Greensboro Beautiful’s impact on the community,” says Mangum.

The first original painting of Gateway Gardens will be unveiled at Greensboro Beautiful’s Groovin’ in the Garden event on Sunday, April 29.

The remaining signature paintings will be introduced at Greensboro Beautiful’s garden events: the Tanger Family Bicentennial Garden painting at Parisian Promenade on Sunday, June 3; the Greensboro Arboretum painting at Art in the Arboretum on Sunday, October 7; and the Bog Garden at Benjamin Park painting at an event to be announced at an exhibit in December. Mangum will appear at each event for print signings and Meet the Artist opportunities.

Each print will be available for a minimum special donation of $25 per print. Prints can be reserved online at GreensboroBeautiful.org beginning April 1st, and will be available for pick up at the garden events.

In addition, Mangum will create a body of twenty-five to fifty originals representing the gardens captured in a variety of seasons and highlighting favorite features of each of the gardens. There will be an exhibit of these additional works and a fundraising event held in December. Details regarding the culmination of Greensboro Beautiful’s 50th Anniversary will be announced at a later date.

DOGWOOD SEEDLING GIVEAWAY

As part of its 50th Anniversary Celebration, Greensboro Beautiful distributed nearly 5,600 dogwood seedlings to all 5th-graders in the Guilford County Schools. Partnering with the Rotary Clubs of Greensboro, NC811, the NC Cooperative Extension Service in Guilford County, and the City of Greensboro, volunteers bagged and delivered seedlings to each school.

Teachers conducted seedling planting activities in their classrooms, and the trees will remain in classrooms until the end of the school year to allow for observation and watering. Greensboro Beautiful also provided teachers with a tree curriculum and tree-related activities which can be incorporated into the classrooms. Students will then take the trees home, or plant them at the school or a location of their choosing. Greensboro Beautiful will also provide planting instructions for students and parents.

“We hope this program will enhance the existing urban forest by involving kids and their parents in new tree plantings,” said Judson Clinton, Greensboro’s City Arborist. “We want the students to understand the benefits of trees; encourage them to plant new trees for future generations; and engage them in planting trees throughout Greensboro.”
GIFT TREE STORIES

My introduction to the program happened when my Dad died in the early nineties and a friend gave a tree memorial. All I could think of was that my father would have been so proud to have set down some roots in NC to be near me. He pretty much insisted that I come to school here- he said that college here was definitely a bargain and he was quite a shopper! I will forever be grateful that he was so wise - my life course was determined by his decision! Another wonderful tree memory occurred several years ago when one of our committees was having difficulty deciding on a gift to honor a special friend for years of service. One contingent wanted to offer jewelry, another cash, etc. Knowing this person and her dedication to Greensboro, I suggested a tree near a school. It turned out that planting would be the following spring and Greensboro Beautiful kept us in contact until the tree was a reality. Our honoree was so delighted - nothing could have pleased her more. This is such a wonderful program! I look at so many beautiful areas and am thankful that we are celebrating so many special people.

Connie Kotis

In 2000, when my dad passed away, friends and family donated six Chionanthus trees to be planted in memory of him. Since we are lucky enough to live across from city owned park land, the trees were planted across the street from our house. In the spring, there is a beautiful show of white plumes that cause me to smile, thinking of my dad. And really, anytime of year, the trees are very comforting.

Lee Britt

When both of my sons were born, a River Birch tree was gifted to each of them in honor of their birth. We asked that they be planted in Lake Daniel Park next to Buffalo Creek where we would often walk to and they would play at the playground. We have shown them their trees over the years. My sons are now 16 and 19 years old. It was such a beautiful gift.

Share your story with us!

Greensboro’s many tree-lined streets, medians, parks, streams, and gardens are due, in large part, to Greensboro Beautiful’s Memorial & Honor Tree Program. For over 40 years, this program has provided a way to remember loved ones, honor friends, and celebrate special occasions with the unique and lasting gift of a tree.

If you have purchased a tree in memory or honor of someone or to celebrate an occasion, or if you have been the recipient of a gift tree, we’d like to hear about why you chose this particular gift, what this gift meant to you, and how the tree became a part of your life.

Greensboro Beautiful is collecting these stories to share as part of our 50th Anniversary Celebration. Share your story with us at GreensboroBeautiful.org. We look forward to hearing your tree story!

PARTNERING WITH NATURE AND THE ENVIRONMENT

Meet Our Guest Speakers

HELEN LOWMAN
...joined Keep America Beautiful (KAB) as President & CEO in May 2017 with more than 20 years of leadership experience in the areas of youth engagement, environmental education, and volunteerism. Prior to joining KAB, she served in a variety of positions and roles including senior foreign service, FEMA, the Peace Corps, has managed environmental education events and initiatives with the Texas Commission on Environmental Quality (TCEQ); and served on the Board of Directors of two KAB Affiliates: Keep Austin Beautiful and Keep El Paso Beautiful.

DOUG TALLAMY
...is currently professor and Chair of the Department of Entomology and Wildlife Ecology at the University of Delaware in Newark. Doug won the Silver Medal from the Garden Writer’s Association for his book, “Bringing Nature Home”. Chief among his research goals is to better understand the many ways insects interact with plants, and how such interactions determine the diversity of animal communities. Doug speaks nationwide about his concerns that the approach to gardening must change. He contends that the widespread planting of ornamental and invasive plants, native to other parts of the world, is creating ecosystem-wide problems.

This event is free and open to the public. A suggested donation of $10 per person is appreciated. Space is limited, so please reserve your seats in advance at GreensboroBeautiful.org.

WINTER WIPEOUT RESULTS

219 volunteers participated in this year’s Winter Wipeout, collecting 336 bags of trash littering roadways, streams, parks, and neighborhoods. Over 400 hours were reported as part of the cleanup - a savings of more than $10,000 in tax-payer dollars! Many thanks to the following groups, families, and individuals:

Alpha Kappa Psi; Psi Sigma; Boy Scout Troop 160; Teresa Bratton; Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints; Cub Scout Pack 316; Cuebids; Delta Sigma Pi at UNCG; Samantha Derr; Dudley High School Environmental Club; Mike Dieffenbacher & Family; Dunleath Historic Neighborhood; Early College at Guilford Environmental Club; Chris Frandock & Family; John & Sue Garry; Gate City Rotary Club; Girl Scout Troop 41227; John Hagan; Allison Hassell; NC A&T American Institute of Architecture Students; Ashley Mansfield; David Moffatt; Nancy Morse; NC A&T MANRRS Chapter; Rebecca O’Donnell; Gigi Ormsby; Daniel Smith & Asher Ermentrout; Swann Middle School Nature Club; Tn Beta; UNCG Office of Service Learning; West Market Street UMC.
APRIL IS NATIONAL VOLUNTEER MONTH

As Greensboro Beautiful celebrates its 50th anniversary this year, we recognize that this milestone is possible only because of the thousands of volunteers throughout each of these years. Individuals and groups who’ve volunteered their time to · bring together City agencies, private citizens, businesses, clubs, and organizations during the early days of the organization

· plan and organize projects and events
· raise money to fund our community projects
· plant trees in neighborhoods and parks
· clean up litter from our streams, parks, roadsides, and neighborhoods
· stuff envelopes and label newsletters
· work at our garden events to help them run smoothly
· help plant, maintain, and enhance our 4 public gardens
· conduct garden tours and speaking engagements
· and so much more!

The value of these volunteer hours averages nearly $300,000 each year! This represents not only a cost savings to City taxpayers, but also a huge boost to the beauty and appearance of our community; one that might not be realized without Greensboro Beautiful and its many loyal and dedicated volunteers.

This month, we recognize and thank the volunteers who help make and keep Greensboro Beautiful today and every day.

50 Years of Beauty in the Making, and Beauty for the Keeping.

Spring is here! It’s a time when our city comes alive again with its lush green tree canopy; colorful blooms; and residents visiting one of our many beautiful gardens and parks for time together with friends and family.

Greensboro is a beautiful and vibrant place to live, work, and raise a family; and Greensboro Beautiful is a large part of the reason why. Through your support, Greensboro Beautiful can celebrate 50 years of Beauty in the Making with four public gardens, tree lined medians, community litter cleanups, environmental efforts, free events in the gardens, thousands of volunteers lending their time and energy to make it all happen, and so much more.

When you connect with Greensboro Beautiful through your financial support, you make it all possible. As we celebrate our 50th Anniversary in this year, we ask you to consider a financial gift to ensure our City’s Beauty for the Keeping.

The evidence of Greensboro Beautiful’s impact is all around you. We hope you’ll join us with your financial support today. Simply return your gift using the form below, or make a gift securely online at www.GreensboroBeautiful.org. You make a difference!
